Gholamhossein Davani

Gholamhossein Davani (born 1953) is an Iranian accounting scholar and professional known for his extensive contributions to the fields of accounting, auditing, corporate governance, taxation, and globalization. He has authored numerous books and articles and is recognized both nationally and internationally.

Early Life and Education

Davani completed his high school diploma in mathematics at Razi High School in Abadan, Iran. He earned a B.A. degree in Cost Accounting from the Iranian Institute of Advanced Accounting (IIAA) in 1975. He later obtained an Executive MBA (EMBA) in Industrial Management from the Industrial Management Organization (IMO). Before imigrating to Canada, he lectured at Sharif University's Faculty of Management and Economics and at the Professional Accountants Center for Training (PACT), among other Iranian institutions. Davani moved to Canada from 2008 and continue his professional research

Career

Davani has been actively involved in the Iranian accounting profession, serving on the Supreme Councils of both the Iranian Association of Certified Public Accountants (IACPA) and the Iranian Institute of Certified Accountants (IICA). He has also collaborated internationally, including honorary involvement with the World Bank on the "Doing Business in Iran" project.

He is a member of several professional organizations such as the American Accounting Association (AAA), Institute of Management Accountants (IMA), Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (CFE), New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA), Canadian Academic Accounting Association (CAAA), European Accounting Association (EAA), and the Association of Professional Economists of British Columbia (APEBC).

In 2012, alongside Professor Zabihollah Rezaee, Davani co-authored the first comprehensive history of accounting in Iran, published as Chapter 3 of Volume 14 in the Global History of Accounting, Financial Reporting and Public Policy: Eurasia, Middle East and Africa.

Davani has over twenty years of professional experience collaborating with Deloitte and RSM International in the Middle East. He set Dayarayan Management & consultancy services firm from 2008 in Vancouver BC. Canada m
